And with the rest of the world will focus on adult literacy, and we hope that we attract the biggest crowd in our activities as possible interested in the "adults read."

Active in this campaign, considering that the reading and writing human right guaranteed by the Constitution, which has been recognized since 1948 in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and confirmed according to the number of international conventions ratified by then, such as the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

In our activities and we know that one campaign is not enough and the activities of limited target is achieved, and our coalition will look like no matter how small, acceded to by the organizations, we are aware of the size and magnitude of the responsibility in this circumstance, which is our country, but we are aware of at the same time, that progress comes after the first step, and drop and then drop after the rain falls, and the beginnings closed and open-ended. Therefore, we call this campaign and we hope that the crowds will us messengers of science teachers and educators and all of its citizens is the fact that this task is the task of timely and needed and necessary.

That this action is collective action and does not represent the only form of our individual, it is an important virtue of the potential, it seems our efforts are weak and fragmented, so find us stress the joint action, with the right of each organization to take its name after it implemented as a donor or sponsor or. Every citizen can also contribute to the implementation of activities related to the campaign, and the subject is open, meaning that it is possible to be a special event and unique to attract attention, but that was part of the framework.
